Introduction

The second part of the Catalogue of Sanskrit manuscripts introduces no very significant changes in presentation, which has to conform to a statutory lay-out. The standard categorization of manuscripts as 'good', 'fair', or 'old' has been replaced by a classification as 'good', 'fair', or 'poor' more obviously based simply on their state of preservation.

To the 3,437 manuscripts listed in Pt. I, a further 3,071 are now added in Pt. II. It will be seen from the accompanying table that the concentration of Bhakti material from the fifteenth century onwards (some 45% of the whole) and of Bengali-script material (some 25%) remains high. Manuscripts which appear to be in the Bengali-script handwriting that is identified elsewhere (Vaiśākhamāhātmya, acc. no. 7688) as belonging to Rūpa Gosvāmī are : Ekādaśīvyavasthā ( 3486 ), Vaiṣṇavīyajanmāṣṭamī ( 3623 ), Tribhaṅga-govindāṣṭaka of Śaṅkarācārya ( 4746 ), and Ṣaṭpadīstotra of Śaṅkarācārya (5575). It may be noted that Bhaktirasāmṛtasindhu and Bhaktirasāmṛtsindhu-bindu have been included in the category of Bhakti in Pārt II, not in Alaṅkāra as in Part I.

Among manuscripts of particular interest are :

VEDIC LITERATURE :

Gopīcandanopaniṣad (3471).

Hanumadupaniṣad (3482).

Vajrasūcikāsaṃdaśanī (3479). by Śrīnivāsadāsa. The subject-matter of this is mainly Varṇāśramadharma and to a lesser extent Vedānta.

The second part of the catalogue was primarily compiled by Sri V. Hanumantachar, Ex-Curator of the G. N. Jha Institute in Allahabad. Substantial further contributions were made by Sri V. B. Goswami, Dr. R. D. Maiduly, and Sri K. M. Sharma, under the supervision of Dr. M. L. Gupta and Dr. R. S. Jaitly. The thanks of the compilers and editors are again due to the Institute's Librarian, Sri G. C. Ghosh; to the Central Government's Ministry of Education and Social Welfare, whose generous grant made possible the publication of Pt. I and Pt. II; and to Sri K. L. Gupta, M.L.A., Dr. (Smt) P. L. Paliwal, and Sri R. C. Sharma for their contributions to the smooth running of the whole project. The excellent cooperation of the Vaijayanti Press, Vrindaban has been greatly appreciated by all concerned.

Sincere thanks go to all those who have so graciously donated their collections of manuscripts to the Institute for the benefit of posterity, notably the late Gorachand Goswami of Radhadamodara Temple, Pt. Moolchand Pujari, Smt. Laxmi Mani Devi, Baba Krishna Dasji, Baba Sudhir Krishna Das, the late Moolchand Goswami, Sarvasri Priya Prabhat Sharma, Murli Manohar Goswami, Achintya Chandra Goswami, Puran Lal Panda, Madan Mohan Goswami, Atul Krishana Goswami, Murari Ranjan Mishra, and Ajay Kumar Goswami.

In return for these acts of sacrifice and trust, the Institute craves the assistance of all who are willing to help in the struggle to rescue India's cultural heritage from dispersal, decay, and loss. The first urgent need is for manpower, i. e. for the gift of the leisure, effort, and skills of those who profess a love for the culture of India, ancient or modern. Despite the progress that has been made towards the publication of hand-list catalogues of nearly 10,000 manuscripts, a similar number still awaits listing, publication, and basic scholarly evaluation; and access to countless thousands of documents can be arranged by the Institute for its members. The other need, of course, is for even modest contributions of money towards the considerable cost of preservation and publication.
